

As regarding Sinclair stations plan to promote a long, one-sided political program.

This is a blatant and obvious attempt to circumvent the election laws if it isn't simply illegal. In any case, this propoganda should not be allowed in this way.

They were probably among those who demanded Farenheit 9/11 not even be advertised on TV because of its political implications.

Their history is clearly partisan and to pretend otherwise is absurd.